by deleting all language after the enacting clause and by substituting instead the following:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 30-3-102, is amended by deleting subsection (a) and by substituting instead the following:

(a) A person absent from his or her place of residence and unheard of for seven (7) years or longer, whose absence is not satisfactorily explained, is presumed to be dead; provided, however, such presumption may be rebutted by proof.

SECTION 2. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 30-3-108(b), is amended by deleting the words and punctuation "if the absentee has not appeared, the court may proceed" and by substituting instead the following:

if the absentee has not appeared and if the court has received evidence sufficient to rebut the presumption that a person absent seven (7) years is dead, then the court may proceed

SECTION 3. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 30-3-108, is amended by adding the following language as a new, appropriately designated subsection:

(c) After the lapse of seven (7) years from the date of the finding provided for in § 30-3-104, if the absentee has not appeared and if sufficient proof has not been received to rebut the presumption that a person absent seven (7) years is dead, then the court may make a final finding and decree that the absentee is dead, in which event the decree and a transcript of all of the receivership proceedings shall be certified to the probate court for any administration required
